

FAMILY DISAGREEMENTS

Between wife
& husband

Between parents
& children

Conflicts

```
graph TD; C([Conflicts]) --> A[Between wife & husband]; C --> B[Between parents & children]; C --> D[Between brothers & sisters]; C --> E[Between a mother-in-law & a daughter-in-law];
```

Between brothers & sisters

Between
a mother-in-law & a daughter-in-law

TeensHealth™

Teens talk about....

1. Do these children argue with their parents? How often?
2. Is it difficult them to talk about smth or discuss smth with their parents? what they usually do in this cases?
3. What is the pros (plus) of being an only child in family?

Family Disagreements

1. How do you often argue with parents?
2. Do you help your parents around the house?
3. What do you think, is it easy to share the room with your sister or brother?
4. Do you discuss your problems together in family?

Family quarrels are bitter things.
They don't go according to any rules.
They're not like aches or wounds,
they're more like splits in the skin
that won't heal because there's not enough material.

— F. Scott Fitzgerald —

AZ QUOTES

Ex.62, p.69

Read and translate:

To quarrel with	ссориться с...
To ignore someone's opinion	игнорировать чье-либо мнение
To keep a sense of humor	иметь чувство юмора
To listen to others	слушать других
To make fun of	высмеивать...
To find a solution	найти решение
To shout at	кричать на...
To talk about	говорить о...
To discuss a conflict/ problem	обсуждать конфликт/ проблему
To be angry/ upset / disappointed / embarrassed/ sad/ aggressive/ rude	быть злым/ расстроенным / смущенным / опечаленным / агрессивным / грубым

Fill in the words and translate the sentences:

1. The mother quarrels with the daughter.
2. The daughter ignores mother's opinion.
3. The father keeps a sense of humor.
4. The elder brother makes fun of the discussion with the younger brother.
5. The daughter is upset with the mother's answer.

Divide into 3 groups:

1. Children don't want to help their parents around the house.
2. Parents don't like their children's fashion.
3. Parents don't like their children's friends.

Home task:

Write an essay:

1. What makes a family happy?
2. Way out to resolve parent-teenager conflict.

200 words.