

The story of one hunter

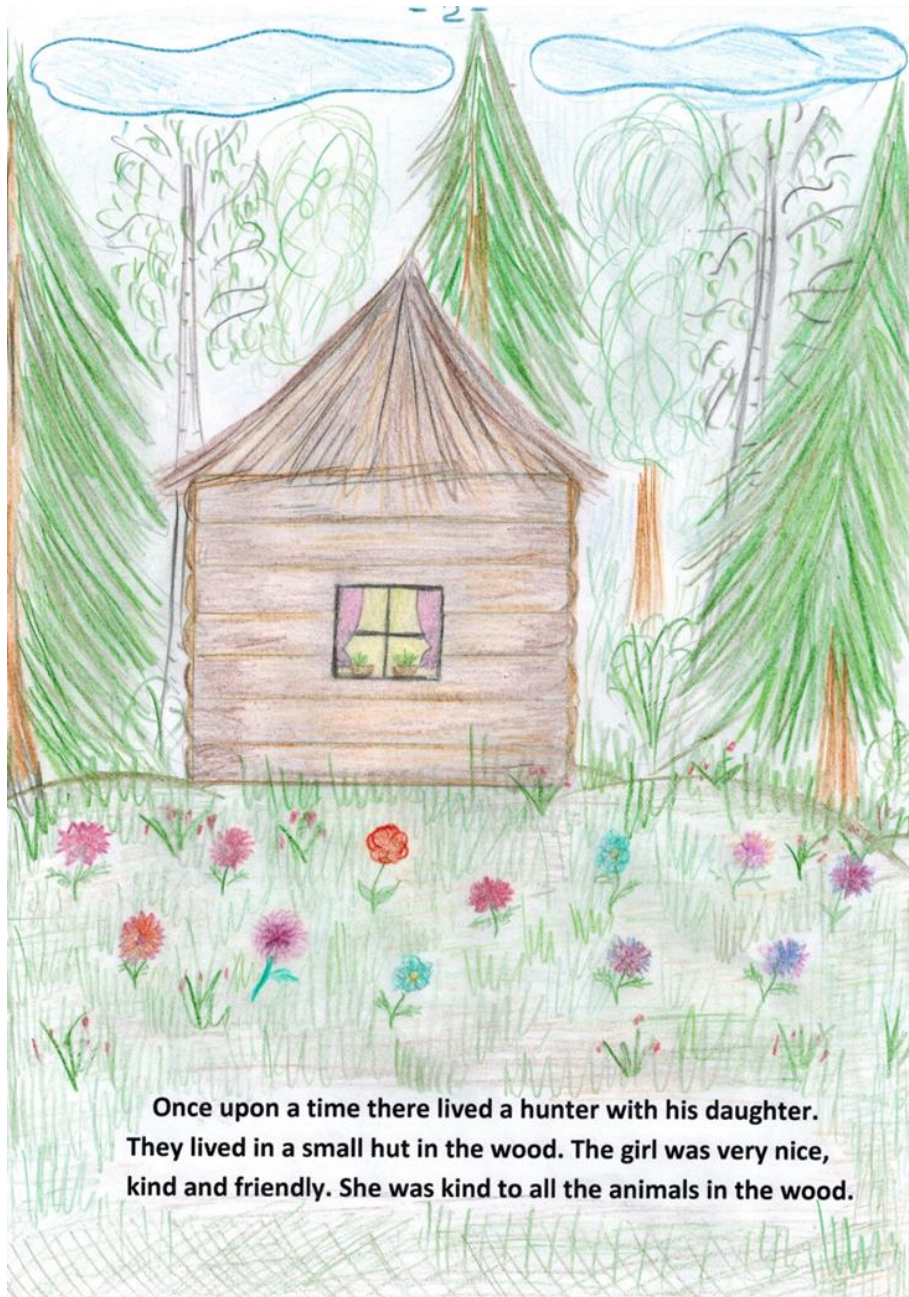

By Dyomina Svetlana,

The student of the 3rd form

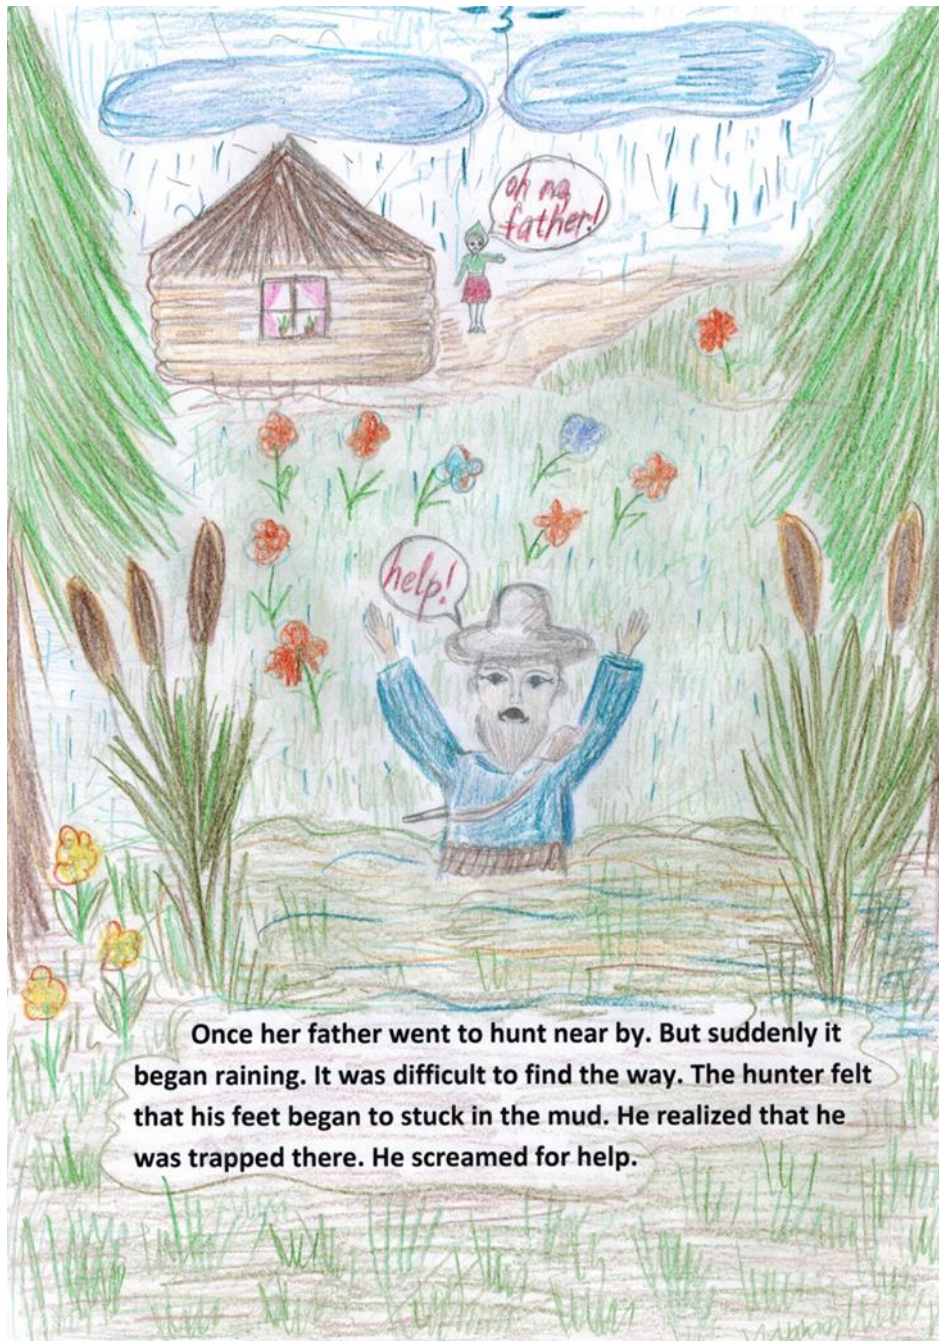

(teacher: Shevchenko E.I.)

School 2026, Moscow, 2017

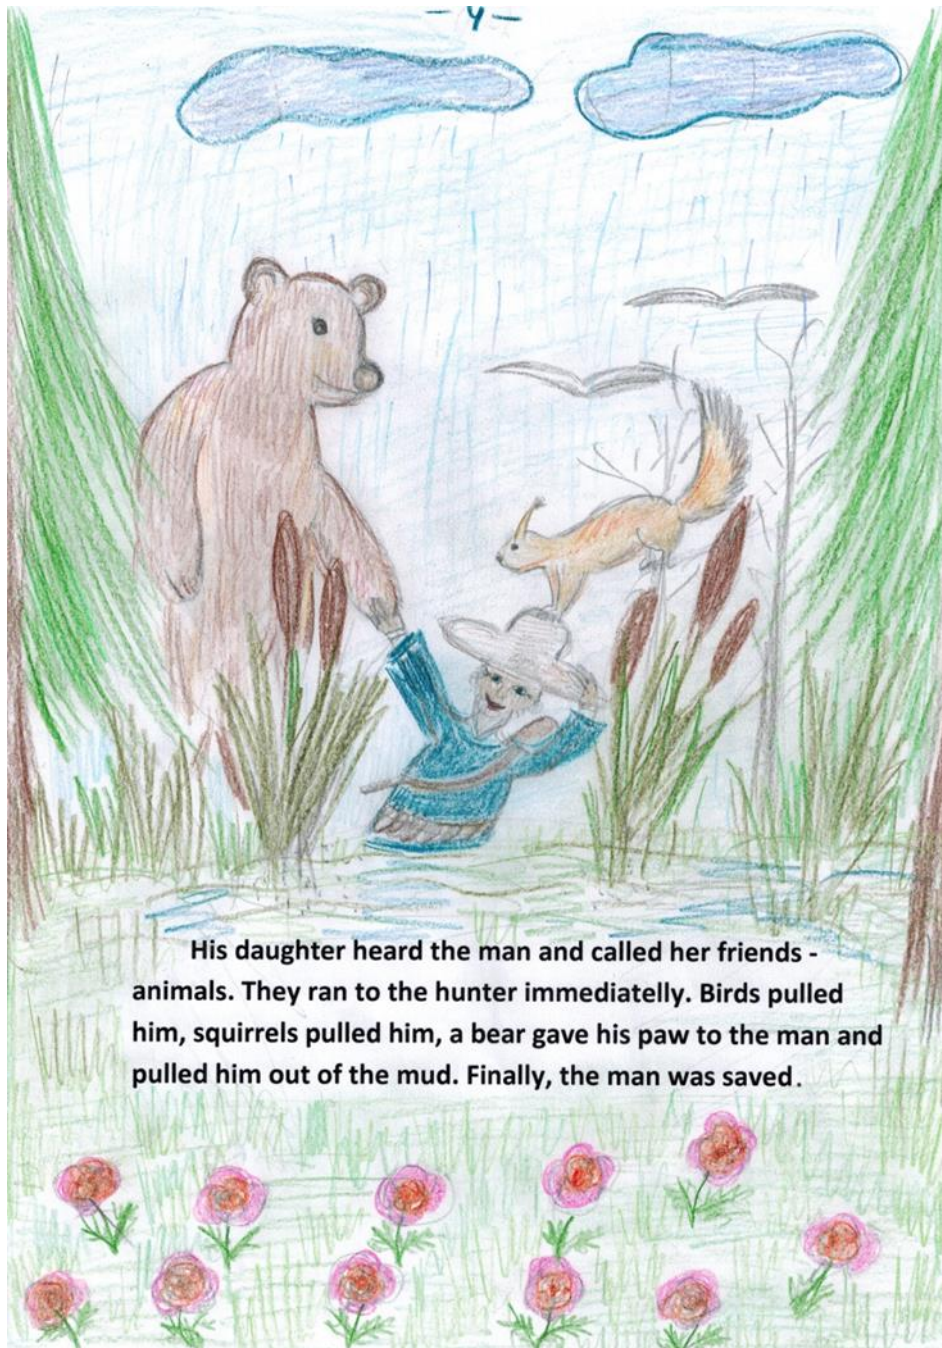

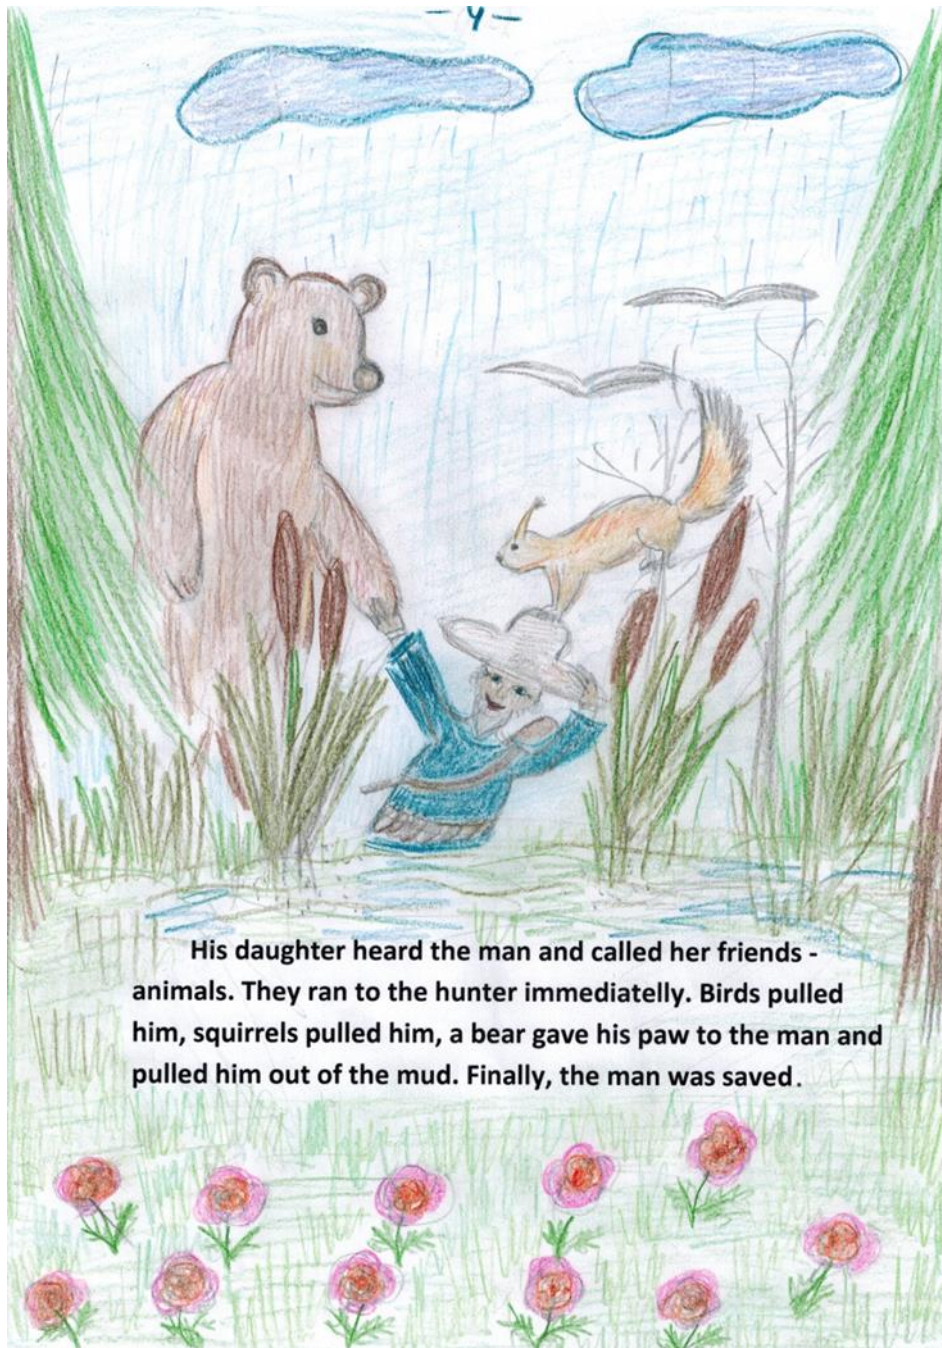

Once upon a time there lived a hunter with his daughter.
They lived in a small hut in the wood. The girl was very nice, kind and friendly. She was kind to all the animals in the wood.

Once her father went to hunt near by. But suddenly it began raining. It was difficult to find the way. The hunter felt that his feet began to stuck in the mud. He realized that he was trapped there. He screamed for help.

His daughter heard the man and called her friends - animals. They ran to the hunter immediately. Birds pulled him, squirrels pulled him, a bear gave his paw to the man and pulled him out of the mud. Finally, the man was saved.

His daughter heard the man and called her friends - animals. They ran to the hunter immediately. Birds pulled him, squirrels pulled him, a bear gave his paw to the man and pulled him out of the mud. Finally, the man was saved.