I have a husband

And two children

John, my son

And Sally, my daughter

My husband Richard is a doctor.

I am a schoolteacher.

I teach music to very young pupils.

I tech Sally too.
Now she can play the piano.

Sally sings very well and loves to sing

I like to listen to her songs.
She often sings together with her friend

I teach at school two days a week, on Tuesday and Thursday.

Sometimes at the weekend we all go to the cinema.
We love to watch interesting films.

But usually we are together in our house and watch television. They have a lot of interesting programmes on television.

My children often play computer games too.

My husband is at work five or six days a week.

But on Sunday he is always with his family. We are very good friends.
