

The Barker`s weekend

Last summer the Barker's decided to visit

William and Beatrice Barker and their children

Ann and Mary

Jim and Charley

On Friday John, Sally and their parents took their 4 o'clock train from London

AND TRAVELLED TO GLASGOW

William met them

And helped with their bags

They all took a bus to the Barker`s house near Glasgow

Beatrice cooked a lot of nice things and they had wonderful supper

John and Sally were tired and went to bed early

On Saturday morning the weather was warm and sunny

And they decided to visit Glasgow

Glasgow is the capital of Scotland

WILLIAM TOOK THEM TO GLASGOW IN HIS CAR

AND SHOWED THEM A LOT OF INTERESTING PLACES

John and Sally loved Glasgow. In the afternoon they all went to a cafe

Then watched television

And play chess

ON SUNDAY MARGARET, RICHARD AND THEIR CHILDREN VISITED GLASGOW PARK AND WALKED
THERE

Late in the afternoon they thanked William and Beatrice and went home by train.

The Barkers had a wonderful weekend

