

The world needs great stories!

Now, you're ready to write and draw your story!

Firebreather

This is a dragon. His name is Firebreather. He lives in a big castle, and a blue river surrounds his house. The dragon can fly and breathe fire. Today he is walking in the village. He is HAPPY and he is singing with the birds. Suddenly fire comes out of his mouth. The dragon sees a house is on fire. It is lucky that nobody is hurt.

The world needs great stories!

The dragon, Firebreather, is kind and good,
He says "I'm so
sorry, dear villagers!"
He helps to build a new house which is better than an old one.

The villagers are happy. Now they have a new good and kind friend, Firebreather, the dragon.
