

The world needs great stories!

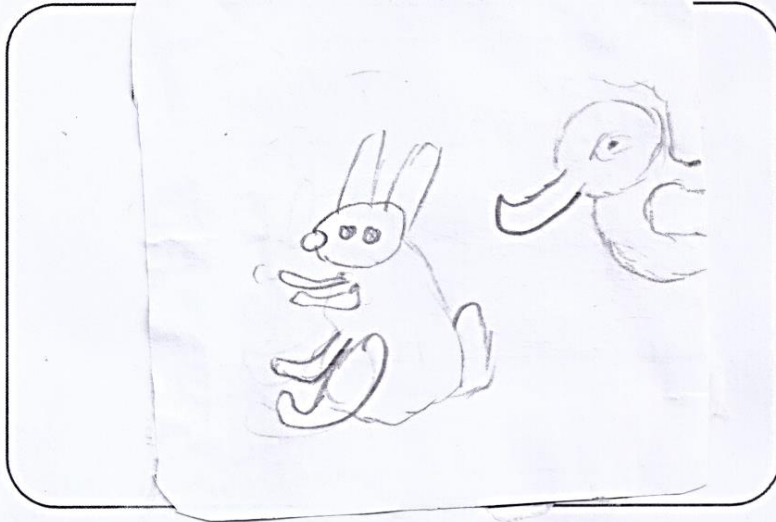

Now, you're ready to write and draw your story!

A Day with my Dad.

One spring day my dad and I pack to go hunting. We put our clothes and food into our bags. In the morning we drive in our car into the forest.

The world needs great stories!

In a little forest house
there are our friends and a dog, Belka
Men hunt hares.

And other children pick wood for the fire

Dad brings two hares and one duck. Then we run and jump
With the dog Belka
The hunting goes well. We are all happy!
