

A Ghost from the Old Castle

10

The world needs great stories!

Now, you're ready to write and draw your story!

It is Saturday. Robbert, a little boy, goes to the house. He is sad. He was in the old castle. When he goes there he wants to live in it.

Now he wants to go again. Robby is very sad and he cries. Robbert wants to know about the castle. Then he asks his mother: "What do you know about castles?" "I know the cat-ghost lives in it.

The world needs great stories!

Don't go to the castle!"—says the mother

Three

days pass and

Robby forgets about mother's words. He goes to the castle. It is dark and there is silence in the castle. Suddenly a white cat jumps behind the cupboard. Robbert

is a curious boy,

and he goes behind

the cupboard. There is a box. In the box a little funny kitten

is sitting. Robby takes the kitten home.

He says: "I will give you the name Ghost."

It is a start of a good friendship.

Olga Solovayova, nine years old, third form.