THE OATH

“In the face of my homeland, in the face of my people, I swear to be devoted to the last breath of my life to the great cause of the liberation of my homeland from the Nazi invaders, to give this cause all my strength, and if necessary, my life. I swear to be brave and courageous, to keep the existence and activities of the organization strictly secret, and to obey all the orders of my leaders without question. And if I have to die at the hands of the enemy, I will die honestly, without asking the enemy for mercy, without betraying my comrades. If, through malice or cowardice, I break my oath, let the punishment be universal contempt and death at the hands of my comrades. Blood for blood! Death for death!”
