Our readers recommend ...

Spirit of the Mountain

by Shelley Davidow

This novel is based in South Africa and it's about a girl called Emily. Emily is anorexic and she says she isn't going to eat again. But then she goes to stay with her uncle on his farm and she meets two new friends: a boy called Joey and a woman called Anna. Slowly, her life begins to change ...

I really enjoyed reading this book. I found it in my school library, and I definitely recommend it!

Cathy (13)

Big Match Manager

by Tom Sheldon

This book is a football adventure! The reader must play imaginary football games and try to solve a mystery. If you're a football fan, it's a perfect book for your summer holiday because it's great fun.

My mum and dad gave me this book on the last day of school and I really enjoyed it because it's so interactive.

THE ALEX RIDER SERIES

by Anthony Horowitz

This is a series of books about a teenage spy called Alex Rider. I read the first book (Stormbreaker) last summer and this summer I'm going to read the seventh one, called Snakehead. All the books are great because the stories are really exciting. Alex Rider has lots of adventures in different places around the world. I recommend this series to anyone who likes adventure books.
