The Cyclone

1.

Little Dorothy lived on the great Kansas prairie with Uncle Henry and Aunt Em. Uncle Henry was a farmer and Aunt Em was his wife. Their house was very small. It had only one room in it. In the room there were a table, three or four chairs and the beds. There were no trees or flowers near the little house. Only the great, grey prairie on every side. Uncle Henry and Aunt Em worked all day long. They never laughed.

- A. Bad weather
- B. In the air
- C. A farmer and his wife
- D. Poor life
- E. People are afraid
- F. The best friend
- G. Thinking about future
- H. A long journey

2.

But Dorothy laughed very often, because she was happy. She was happy, because she had a dear friend, Toto, a little black dog with long hair, small black eyes and a funny little nose. Toto and Dorothy played together all day long.

3.

One day Uncle Henry stood at the door of his house and looked at the sky. The sky was grey. Dorothy stood in the yard with Toto in her arms and looked at the sky, too. Aunt Em was in the kitchen. Suddenly a strong, cold wind came from the East and the sky became dark.

4.

Uncle Henry cried out to Aunt Em: "A cyclone, Em, a cyclone! How terrible! I shall go and look after the cows and horses". And he ran off. Aunt Em came to the door and looked at the sky in panic. "Quick, Dorothy", she cried. "Run to the house. I must help Uncle Henry". And Aunt Em ran off too.

5.

Dorothy ran into the house with Toto in her arms. The wind shook the house hard and the little girl suddenly sat down on the floor. At that moment a strange thing happened. The house spun around three times. Then the wind lifted it slowly into the air. The cyclone carried the little house miles and miles away.

6.

It was very dark in the house. Dorothy was frightened and wanted to cry. "What will happen to us?" thought the little girl. Toto ran around and barked.

7.

Hour after hour passed. Nothing terrible happened. "I have to wait and see what will happen!" thought Dorothy. "And I am so sleepy". She got up from the floor, found her bed and lay down on it. Toto came up to her and lay down too. The girl closed her eyes and was soon asleep.

Somewhere over the 1 way up high

There's a land that I heard of once in a lullaby

Somewhere over the rainbow 2 are blue

And the dreams that you dare to dream really do come 3

Someday I'll wish 4 a star

And wake up where the clouds are far

5 me

And troubles 6 like lemon drops

Away above the 7 tops

That's 8 you'll find me

Somewhere over the rainbow 9 fly

Birds fly over the rainbow

Why then, oh, 10 can't I?

Tax Collectors

One day Robin was in the forest with Little John. "Look over there, Robin," said his friend, "near the river." Robin looked towards the river. There was a young deer standing under a tree. Robin put an arrow in his bow and aimed. But it was a beautiful deer with big brown eyes and he didn't really want to kill it. "Go away," he shouted and the deer ran off. "Now, what can we eat?" shouted Little John. "I'm hungry!" "You are always hungry," said Robin, "but I'm sure you won't starve!"

"Listen," said Robin. "I can hear horses. Let's hide behind this tree." Robin and Little John saw two men and a woman on horses come into the forest. They wore beautiful clothes. They were rich! Robin and Little John put arrows in their bows and stopped the group. "Your money, please," said Robin, "if you want to leave the forest!" "You can't rob me," said one of the men. "This is tax money for the Sheriff!"

Robin Hood and his men took money from the rich people who went through Nottingham Forest. They also stole money from the Sheriff of Nottingham's tax collectors and gave it back to the people. The poor people of Nottingham loved Robin and his men, but the Sheriff hated him. "The people pay me taxes. Robin Hood steals it and gives it back. I want Robin Hood in the castle dungeons!"
