

My Story Writing Guide

There are six things you can do to write a fantastic story.

1. Analyse

What makes a good story? Tick all that you think are true.

- ☐ It has a beginning, middle and end.
 - ☐ It has interesting characters.
 - ☐ It has sentences and paragraphs.
 - ☐ It's old.
 - ☐ It's really, really, really long.
 - ☐ It has a difficult problem that characters solve.
 - ☐ It has adjectives and adverbs to describe things.

What's your favourite story? Why do you like it?

Who's your favourite character in a story?

What makes them special?

2. Mind-Map

What can you see?

Who is in the picture?
What could their names be?

How did this happen?

Where are they going?

Ask and answer
these questions about the picture that you chose.

What problem will they have?

How will the problem
be resolved?

3a. Plan (Your Story)

Draw the main events of your story here:

Resolution

Conclusion

Draw and describe your characters:

Name: Likes: Dislikes: Personality:	Name: Likes: Dislikes: Personality:	Name: Likes: Dislikes: Personality:

3b. Plan (Your Language)

7 verbs in the past tense

6 adjectives

4 connecting words

3 adverbs

3 time words

[illegible]

5. Edit

How do you feel about your story?

What do you like? What could be better?

Edit Checklist Did you include all of these?

- ☐ sentences with full stops
 - ☐ paragraphs
 - ☐ verbs in the past tense
 - ☐ 4 connecting words
 - ☐ 6 adjectives
 - ☐ 3 adverbs
 - ☐ 3 time words

Give your story to someone else to check.

What do they like about your story? What ideas do they have about how to make your story better?
